Francesca Azzara has been an exhibiting artist for over 30 years and exhibits extensively through out the NJ/NY area. She has received numerous awards including two HEART grants from the Union County Division of Cultural Affairs. She has been cited in many publications including the New York Times and the Newark Star Ledger.

Recently, she is focusing on incorporating mixed media (ink, oil stick and acrylic on paper) into her encaustic paintings. The artist has taught encaustic painting techniques at the Newark Museum and New Jersey Center for Visual Arts. She is a member of NAWA in NYC, the oldest women’s art organization in the U.S. She is also a member of Pro-Arts Jersey City, the Art Alliance of Red Bank and a board member of the Westfield Art Association. In 2021 and '23 she participated in Art Fair 14C, New Jersey’s only art fair.
