

Marta Nowicka

@abstractartbymarta

Marta Nowicka is a Polish-born, New Jersey-based visual artist specializing in abstract painting and printmaking. Her work explores color, texture, and form, capturing a delicate interplay between structure and spontaneity. Marta creates layered, abstract landscapes that evoke moments of reflection, inspired by her international experiences and a profound appreciation for nature's beauty. Her practice encompasses both painting and printmaking, inviting viewers to journey into imagined spaces where vibrant colors and dynamic shapes converge to convey movement, depth, and tranquility.

As an artist, Marta's goal is to bring joy, inspiration, and a sense of calm into viewers' lives. She aims to create visual escapes that encourage reflection and connection, offering moments of peace and positivity amid life's constant changes. Her work, exhibited at art fairs and shows across the U.S. and Europe, resonates with collectors who seek art that bridges cultural and emotional landscapes, enriching their spaces with beauty, warmth, and joy.
