@fsuarezart

Fabricio Suarez is an artist from Uruguay working in Jersey City. He received his BFA in Fine Arts and illustration from the School of Visual Arts in New York City.

He has shown in numerous galleries in across NYC and NJ and has done two residencies in Jersey City's Mana Contemporary, and Artists Off-the-Grid in Colorado.

Interested in the mystery and of what nature holds, his current studio practice consists of dark and colorful paintings mostly rooted in the landscape, and born of expressionist brushstrokes. Mainly influenced by Old Masters, he rethinks traditional beauty for spiritual elements of American savagery.
